

GAA MUSEUM VOUCHER

This voucher entitles you to 2 for 1 entry to The GAA Museum, Stadium Tour and Fighting Irishmen Exhibition. Simply print off and present this voucher at The GAA Museum.

The GAA Museum is located under the Cusack Stand of Croke Park Stadium, Drumcondra, Dublin 3 and is accessed via St. Joseph's Avenue, which is just off Clonliffe Road. There is no access to the museum from the Hogan Stand side of the stadium.

Valid until Saturday 31st October 2010.

Check out www.crokepark.ie for opening times and map of location.

GAA Museum

The museum traces the birth and growth of the GAA at home and abroad and its unique role in the national movement and cultural revival in Ireland. The vast collection of artifacts which include hurleys, jerseys, trophies, medals, programmes, publications and banners illustrate the development of Gaelic Games whilst preserving and presenting the unique heritage of the Gaelic Athletic Association.

Stadium Tours

Attracting visitors from all over Ireland and around the globe, the Croke Park Stadium Tour offers an in-depth behind-the-scenes look at one of the most historic and modern sporting arenas in the world. Running throughout the year on a daily basis, the guided tour will bring you through the dressing rooms, corporate levels, the VIP section, media centre, service areas and, of course, pitch side. No stadium tours on event days.

Fighting Irishmen - Celebrating Celtic Prizefighters 1820 - Present

The GAA Museum is delighted to present Fighting Irishmen, a new exhibition on loan from the Irish Arts Center in New York, which tells the story of Irish emigration and assimilation through the sport of boxing.

Shuttle Bus

The GAA Museum in partnership with Glasnevin Museum is running a special Shuttle Bus from April until September bringing visitors to the two Northside venues. This new service will operate five days a week to the GAA Museum at a cost of €3 return.
